Dear Mr. Satyaraj Chetty,

Mr. B. Srinivasiengar, Under Secretary to Government is going on leave from the 2nd proximo and will be leaving the Secretariat thereafter. I am desired to request you to kindly favour Government with your confidential opinion as to which of the Civil Service Assistant Comptrollers now in your office might be thought of for the place of Assistant Secretary, Finance Department.

Dear Mr. Matthan,

I am in receipt of your D.O. letter no. 2868-E-B of the 24th instant marked "confidential" asking for my opinion as to which of the Assistant Comptrollers in this office might be thought of for the place of Assistant Secretary, Finance Department. I could safely recommend Messrs. T. Appaji Gowda and A.S. Raghavendra Rao who are now holding independent charge of sections in this office and Government may select any one of them! Both of them are doing their work quite satisfactorily and with an earnestness and zeal which is characteristic of them. They have also passed the Higher Departmental Examination prescribed for officers of the Finance Department of Government of India.

May I then say that Messrs. T. Appaji Gowda and A.S. Raghavendra Rao are considered by me as selected for the post?

Yours sincerely,
